Rx for Weddings is a division of Rx for Catering, LLC which specializes in culinary consulting, event logistics and design concepts for the past 25 years. It is because of her knowledge and creativity that Ms. Claire Gould, owner was asked by her clients and friends to consult on their weddings. During these consults the brides were able to sit down with a fresh set of eyes and ears to talk through every aspect of their wedding event and receive sound advice that often saved them time and money.

In the past Rx has been involved with Jane Fonda's foundation as a consultant to Ms. Fonda's annual fundraising event. Claire is the culinary expert to Plan Your Meetings Magazine and speaks to event and culinary logistics in other publications. Current and past clients include The Coca-Cola Company, Honeywell International and IBM.

WHAT IS RX FOR WEDDINGS?

- It is a service where you – The Bride – bring all your wedding plans, questions, contracts and concerns. We sit down for a 3 to 4 hour period and go over every element of your wedding from the arrival of the first guest until the last piece of rice is thrown.
- Once an appointment is booked you will receive a proprietary questionnaire focusing on your wedding details and wish list. This allows us to customize a working agenda that will best fit your wedding requirements.
- We will discuss what needs to be done and speak objectively to your wedding vision. Together we will work intelligently to do any refining and talk through areas of indecision.
- Rx for Weddings is a great time-saving service for brides who are tying the knot for the first time or taking that repeat trip down the aisle.

AFFORDABLE PRICING CONSULTS STARTING AT $300

- You will realize cost savings throughout the consult. The cost savings we provide, more often than not, will offset our fees, making our service to you FREE!!
